

K-LOVE in my area works for the community. I listen to it often and it also serves as a point of contact for non-profit functions to be on the air so people know where things are going on at. It also helps me to understand that America is great for letting Americans still have the distinction in which station and what the station has on it..to be determined by the people.